

Specialist in inspection, repair and overhaul of aircraft safety components

WE ARE HIRING:

Workshop Technicians

Position Purpose:

To work within the team, to ensure that all customer TAT's are met, and to carry out any day to day work required in accordance with your role and experience within the Department to ensure that the aims and objectives of the Company are met.

Key responsibilities and accountabilities:

Ensure that all work is carried out in accordance with the correct revision Component Maintenance Manual (CMM).
Ensure that any ambiguities in maintenance data are reported to the Team Leader.
Ensure that any inability to comply with CMM's is reported to the Team Leader.
Ensure any issues effecting airworthiness are reported to the department Team Leader immediately.
Ensure work practices are carried out in accordance with the organisations MOE.
Meet customer TAT's in accordance with requirements.
Aim to ensure all items received are quoted within stipulated time.
Aid with the improvement of efficiency within the department and create a team ethos.
Always demonstrate accuracy and attention to details.
Ensure work is prioritised affectively.
Ensure good housekeeping within the area.
Use the appropriate PPE that has been provided at all times.
Adhere to the appropriate health and safety standards at all times.
Ensure that work is carried out only after the appropriate level of training has been undertaken.

Liaise with the Team Leader to continually to ensure targets are met and understood.
Complete any other appropriate tasks as delegated by the Team Leader, Workshop Supervisor, or other company management to meet the needs of the business.

KEY SKILLS AND REQUIREMENT
Requirement	Essential or Desirable
Qualifications / Education / Training: Technical or Vocational Diploma	Essential
Experience: Technical or engineering experience or evidence to be technically savvy.	Essential
Knowledge: Basic knowledge of engineering	Essential
Knowledge of Industry	Desirable
Basic knowledge and understanding of H&S.	Essential
Possess good communication skill in English	Essential

PLEASE SUBMIT APPLICATION TO mohd.zulkifli@aviatechnique.asia
Target Employment Start Date: Oct 2026